 - l. directions to pool site, hotel;
 - m. list of restaurants, directions, and phone numbers;
 - n. meet director's phone number, fax number and address.
7. Seed entries (determine diving order by lot) and prepare heat sheets for officials, swimmers and spectators.
8. Order awards.
9. Supervise committee chairpeople.

B. DAY OF MEET:

1. Coaches meeting:
 - a. introduce coaches, officials, meet personnel, etc.;
 - b. select and announce a meet committee to act as specified in Rule 4, Sec. 1;
 - c. select diving judges;
 - d. review award presentation procedures;
 - e. have officials determine diving order by lot;
 - f. review procedures for scratching entries, declaring relay competitors and declaring a false start in the prelims of an individual event;
 - g. review timing system and backup procedure used;
 - h. have officials review seeding, diving sheets, disqualification procedures, relay takeoff judging, and false start recall, restriction of swimmers from designated areas, and use of artificial noisemakers during the meet.
2. Serve as chairperson of meet committee (appeals committee):
 - a. The meet committee shall consist of:
 1. chairperson – meet director;
 2. the referee – ex-officio;
 3. the diving referee – ex-officio;

4. other knowledgeable swimming and diving persons to comprise an odd number of committee members.

Note: The referee or diving referee should not serve as a member of the committee if the committee is acting on the referees' or diving referee's decision.

b. Meet Committee Responsibilities:

1. to rule on questions not specifically covered by the rules;

c. Procedure:

1. meet committee convenes and listens to the complaint;

2. the person initiating the complaint is excused;

3. meet committee confers with the referee or diving referee if necessary;

4. committee discusses complaint and makes a decision;

5. the chairperson notifies the person initiating the complaint and the referee of the decision;

6. the referee implements the decision;

7. the committee's decision is final.

3. Post results for coaches, athletes, spectators and media.

C. POST-MEET

1. Review job descriptions and make changes.

2. Start working on next year's meet.

II. PUBLIC RELATIONS

A. PRE-MEET RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Gather and disseminate information involving the meet to the news media and general public. Information to include:

a. general meet information (location, date, time, ticket prices);

b. meet records, favored teams/individuals, defending champions;

c. meet director's and public relations chairperson's phone numbers.

2. Contact participating schools to find out whom they wish to have results transmitted to in their local area.

3. Establish local media connections early. Create list of local media names, telephone numbers, fax telephone numbers and backup contacts. Contact UPI and AP people to see if they will send results over the wire if you fax them.

4. Send out premeet press release approximately one month before event. Try to include local color to entice media coverage.

5. Send out release one week before the meet. Use the three days before the meet to telephone each media contact to remind them about the meet. Tell them that you are calling to make sure that they have received the press release and to answer any questions they may have. You may also ask them who they are planning to send to cover the meet so you can have a press pass ready for the individual.

B. DURING MEET

1. Set up press area for media to have table and "home base" during the meet:

a. have a sign-in sheet for the press;

b. make up a press badge for identification and give to each press representative;

c. provide press kit which should include:

1) rules and regulations of meet, i.e., no flash pictures at start of race;

2) schedule of events with starting times;

3) records;

- 4) seedings;
 - 5) background information on top swimmers/coaches;
 - 6) copy of program;
 - 7) day two: results of prelims;
 - 8) some information about swimming itself might be helpful to the press covering the meet.
2. Be knowledgeable about ALL rules pertaining to meet, i.e., whether press photographers are allowed on deck, etc.
 3. Work out arrangements with score table so you get multiple copies of results as soon as they are available. Many media people will only have small window to cover meet. It is important that they have information as soon as it is available.
 4. Have several people (former area swimmers recently graduated from college) to assist media people. Remember, in most cases the media people do not know a butterfly from a breaststroke. These former swimmers are naturals, as they are mature enough to handle the press and have a personal knowledge of swimming.
 5. Get access to telephone and fax machine to distribute results.
 6. Make up result packets for coaches.

C. POST-MEET

1. Fax or phone results to media.
2. Send results to college coaches who have requested them.
3. Post results on the Internet.
